

Hey! How's my favorite stylist this month?

I just got back from a dazzling night out at the Haute Couture Gala. It was a posh black-tie event, and I got to mingle with some of the best fashion designers in the industry! I was all smiles in my classic black and white dress, luscious wrap, and long gloves! My sparkly silver shoes added just the right amount of brilliance to the ensemble, as I weaved my way through the crowd. It was just what I was going for - a timeless, classic fashion that's perfect for any special occasion! It's striking and modest all at once.

Everyone wanted to know where I got this amazing dress, and I was more than happy to tell them about the magic of my Dream Closet. Word spread quickly through the ballroom, and before I knew it, I was whisked up onto stage and introduced as an up and coming fashionista! I was so thrilled and flattered! I didn't set out to be a fashion icon-- I wear clothes that make me feel happy, authentic, empowered, and comfortable! I was asked where I find my inspiration. I cleared my throat, snuggled into my fluffy wrap, and leaned into the microphone. "Well," I said. "You know, fashion is what you buy. Style is what you do with it. And true style and beauty comes from within." A murmur of approval rippled through the crowd, followed by enthusiastic applause. I felt myself blush as I made my way back to my seat, my cheeks adding a bright pink hue to my otherwise strictly black and white outfit!

It was a really lovely evening at the gala, and what I love about this dress is that it's perfect for so many other occasions! (And the SHOES! Let's not forget those shimmering shoes!) Let's check our calendars-- I bet we have some special events coming up that we can enjoy together with this classic fashion! I can't wait to see what fabulous fun we'll have together!

You know, when it comes to friends, you're just my style!

xoxo
Grace

